

CHARTrunner[®] Lean & CHARTrunner

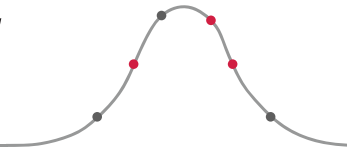

Which solution is right for you?

Both solutions within the CHARTrunner software suite help reveal the meaning behind your data. Each creates statistical process control charts that help you make data-driven business decisions. The comparison chart below can help you select the right solution to best fit your needs.

	CHARTrunner[®] LEAN	CHARTrunner[®]
Charting data sources
Charts from data in Microsoft Excel	✓	✓
Charts from data in Microsoft Access	✓	✓
Charts from data in SQL Server*	✓	✓
Charts from databases via ODBC, OLE DB, and text files	✓	✓
Support for custom queries		✓
Usability features
Annotations*	✓	✓
Chart selection guidance	✓	✓
Chart creation wizard	✓
Changes (e.g. line color) instantly appear on chart as you edit	✓
Multiple chart folders open concurrently	✓
Sort charts alphabetically, by date, by type, or by description	✓
Thumbnail image chart browsing	✓
Customization features
Support for custom out-of-control rules	✓	✓
Filter data*	✓	✓
Save chart as an image	✓	✓
Direct on-chart support for extra lines	✓	✓
Titles	✓	✓
Support for causes (ghosting data) and notes	✓	✓
User-defined default chart	✓	✓
Chart refresh at a timed interval	✓	✓
User-defined chart style options*	✓	✓
Direct on-chart support for control limits	✓
Multiple formats for dates on charts	✓
Data displayed on the chart		✓

*Indicates function is improved in CHARTrunner Lean.

CHARTrunner Lean & CHARTrunner

Available chart types

	CHARTrunner LEAN	CHARTrunner
Measurement control charts (X, mR, X-bar, range, sigma)	✓	✓
Attributes control charts	✓	✓
Histogram with normal and non-normal distributions	✓	✓
Pareto bar charts	✓	✓
Screen for excessive variation	✓	✓
Run charts	✓	✓
Multi-line charts*	✓	✓
Multi-charts*	✓	✓
Pie and column Pareto charts		✓
Rare-events charts (t- and g-chart)		✓
p-prime and u-prime charts		✓
Short-run charts		✓
Box and whisker charts		✓
Moving average, median, cusum, 3-way control charts		✓
Scatter diagram		✓
Dashboard indicators		✓

*Indicates function is improved in CHARTrunner Lean.

For more information, please call
800-777-3020